

María Cristina Toro Restrepo was appointed to serve as Legal Vice President as of May 7, 2024. She is a lawyer from Universidad de Caldas university and has completed specializations in Mining-Energy Law at Universidad Externado de Colombia, in addition to Commercial Law and Tax and Customs Legislation at Universidad de Caldas. Within her 26 years of professional experience, she served as General Secretary of Medellín's public utilities company (EPM), headed the Legal Counsel Office of the metro of Bogotá, acted as General Secretary of the metro of Medellín, headed the Labor Relations Management area of EPM, served as General Secretary and Legal Vice President of Grupo Energía de Bogotá, General Secretary of CHEC and Legal Director of Aguas de Manizales. Ms. Toro is a member of Women in Connection and a member of the Women Corporate Directors' Community and Leadership Advisory Board of the school for business administration, CESA.