

Jaime Pineda Durán has been appointed as Vice President of Supply and Services as of January 10, 2023. Prior to this appointment, he was Procurement and Supply Chain Manager at Ecopetrol S.A. He joined Ecopetrol in 1989 as a Legal Advisor, and has served 22 years at the Vice-Presidency of Legal Affairs and 11 years in the procurement and supply chain areas. Mr. Pineda has held leadership positions such as District Legal Adviser, Head of the Legal Coordination for Procurement, Head of the Supply and Services Legal Advice Unit, Director of the Internal Control Office, Director of Supply of Goods and Services, Strategic Supply Director, Head of the Supply Excellence Department, where he led the transformation of the Company's procurement and supply chain operating model. Mr. Pineda has over 33 years of relevant experience in the Oil and Gas industry as a lawyer and supply chain executive. He has also been a professor in several universities. He holds a bachelor's degree in Law from Universidad Autónoma de Bucaramanga and has vast experience in contract law.