Ecopetrol receives NYSE notice regarding non-filing of annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2016

Ecopetrol S.A (BVC: ECOPETROL; NYSE: EC) announces that received a notification letter from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) stating that because of the non-filing of the annual report in the form 20-F, the procedures established in Section 802.01E for the Companies Manual listed on the New York Stock Exchange shall apply. This procedure establishes that the NYSE will monitor compliance with the reporting obligation for a period of six months. If this period is not met, the NYSE may consider extending this period for up to six more months, depending on Ecopetrol's own circumstances, before proceeding to suspend trading or delist the share.

It is important to mention that Ecopetrol's audited financial statements for 2016 have been duly presented in Colombia in compliance with local financial regulations and authorities.

The Company's management is committed to file its annual report on Form 20-F and be again in compliance with applicable listing rules as soon as possible.
